

Registering a data breach

Handling a data breach

A clear overview of all the information about the incident and what measures need to be taken incident entity page

Details about the incident derived from the initial form.

checklist of determined actions register new notivity timeline of actions

conclude incident

conclude incident

Update the status of the incident by registering an activity to deal with the incident

Conclude the incident to register that all has been done to handle the incident